EVENT DETAILS

- This evening will be a follow-up to the 2023 training in an informal, relaxed atmosphere, where parents can chat and share information.
- This will be part I of a two-part series in 2024 guiding parents to plan for a life of a child with a disability when parents are no longer able to assist with decisions.
- This dinner is for all parents, regardless of your age or your child's age.
- 'Seasoned' Parents will be available to discuss children living in own apartment or home, residential living in a group environment, maintaining the life your child has become accustomed to, and more.
- There will not be any speakers for part I. It is designed to be parent networking.

CHILDREN ATTEND A MOVIE

- Do not let caring for your child prevent you from attending the dinner. The Arc is offering support at a movie theatre.
- There is no cost to attend the movie. The Arc will absorb the movie entrance fee. This offer is only available for children whose parents attend the Parent's Night Out. It is not open to the general public or Arc membership.
- There will be volunteers, Arc staff, and a nurse present throughout the movie.
- Drop your child off at the movie and pick up in the same spot when the parent dinner concludes.
